BREWSTER

ALEXANDER TO KEEP JUGO-SLAV THRONE

Young King Interested in Developing and Strengthening His Nation.

SOUNDS HOPE FOR PEACE

Ridicules Importance of Albania, Saying He Wants Protection From Clans.

BELGRADE, Nov. 20 (Associated Press).—All reports that King Alexander has any intention of abdicating may be put down as pure fiction. The King has never given the slightest thought to the subject, and indeed it may be said that no cause ever existed for such a step.

The young Serbian ruler already has taken the oath to support the Constitution and his coronation probably will occur soon after completion of the new palace, which is expected to be ready for the event some time next summer.

The King in an interview has just declared that stories forecasting his abdication were quite as absurd as other reports concerning him while in Paris. He said his health was excellent and that he was glad to get back to Jugoslavia, take up the reins of government and help in the solution of the country's problems. He robust, fresh appearance, quick step and buoyant, cheerful spirit certainly supported his statement that he was in excellent physical condition.

Hopes for Success of Parley.

Alexander sought news of the Washington conference, in the outcome of which he said he was deeply interested. He expressed the wish for its fullest success.

"Jugoslavia welcomes most cordially every step toward the avoidance of armed conflict in the future," he said. "Like all other countries, we need peace, not only to heal our wounds from the great war, which are especially grave, but also to enable us, by the mutual effort of our united races, to achieve our full stature and to gain that position and standing in the family of nations to which our industry, our riches and our situation entitle us. I should indeed be happy if our greater friends among the Allies followed to a larger degree of sympathy and understanding our efforts in this direction."

Asked his views concerning the decision of the Allied Council of Ambassadors on the Albanian boundary dispute, the King replied that he hoped the council, on reflection, would modify its decision so as to give greater justice and protection to Jugoslavia.

"All we desire is peace and established order," he said. "We have no imperialistic ambitions in Albania or elsewhere. Albania consists of poor, unproductive mountain land, and no part of it could add materially to our wealth or importance. We seek only a strong boundary line which will assure us security and immunity from the constant incursions and violence of the tribal groups that make up that country."

Calls Albania Primitive.

It was a pity, Alexander added, that Europe and America seemed so slightly to understand Albania, and the real character of its people. They seemed to think Albania was a modern, progressive and orderly country, with an organized and stable Government and an enlightened, peaceful and law abiding population.

"If you have been in Albania you will know how far this is from being a fact," Alexander said. "The country is extremely primitive. The Government is weak and without decisive authority; all people are untutored, hostile and resentful. The country is made up largely of tribal groups which constantly are at war, even among themselves. They are led by chiefs who rule by paternal right."

Wants Strong Boundaries.

Alexander said he understood the Council of Ambassadors was ready to make some slight territorial concessions to Jugoslavia, but he declared that these were not enough. He emphasized his country's need for a strong natural barrier of mountains and rivers. The King insisted that this would be the only effective means for keeping out hostile border clans.

"The United States," he declared, "has shown complete understanding and feeling for our sufferings. Our needy peoples still are benefiting by the succor, sympathy and moral encouragement which the willing hands of your generous people are giving them."

BALTIC STEERAGE FARE CUT.

MONTREAL, Nov. 20.—A reduction of $21.50 in third-class passenger rates to Hamburg and $28.50 to Danzig was put into effect to-day by local steamship companies. Westbound rates from those ports were lowered $1 more. Other continental rates were reduced accordingly. The additional American head tax and European visa charges are maintained.

The International Mercantile Marine Company recently announced at New York a 20 per cent. reduction in third class rates to European ports.

U. S. IS URGED TO SHOULDER BURDEN OF WORLD FINANCE

Only Nation That Can Stabilize Credit for Countries Near Brink of Insolvency, Says British Paper, Warning of Threatened Catastrophe.

LONDON, Nov. 20.—Unless the United States shoulders the burden of world finance, only a miracle can avert the financial catastrophe which is ever drawing nearer, the Sunday Times (in connection with the London Times) declares in its editorial columns this morning.

The newspaper regards the limitation of armaments as an accomplished fact, for which it gives credit to the United States, and passes on to its discussion of finance with the remark that is hoped the American people will display equal courage and foresight in coping with the vast and more imminent menace of world finance.

"America alone can stabilize credit by devising some scheme for financing the nations now hovering on the brink of insolvency," it says, under the caption "Washington and World Finance," adding:

BURMA PRINCE DIES POOR; BLAMED BRITISH

Imprisoned, Escaped, Got Asylum in Indo-China.

Special Cable to THE NEW YORK HERALD. Copyright, 1921, by THE NEW YORK HERALD. New York Herald Tribune, Nov. 20.

Confirmation has been received here of reports of the death at Saigon, capital of French Cochinchina, of the unfortunate Prince Myingoon, who was long described as a victim of British imperialism.

Heir to large estates in Burma, the English chased him out of that country and when he returned there they imprisoned him. More than a hundred attempts by him to escape failed, but he finally managed to reach Indo-China, where the French Government welcomed him and gave him a pension. When he learned that the throne of Burma was being usurped by the illegitimate Prince Thebaw, Prince Myingoon tried twice to regain his rights, but failed.

Prince Myingoon then returned broken hearted to Saigon. It is reported that he died in abject poverty, but still protesting against the British conquest of Burma.

JUGO-SLAVIA TO FLOAT LOAN.

Internal 6 Per Cent. Issue and Tax Increase Planned.

BELGRADE, Nov. 20.—The Jugoslav budget for 1922 is more than 6,000,000,000 dinars (nominally about 20 cents), and to meet the increase in appropriations the Government contemplates floating an internal loan of 1,000,000,000 dinars at 6 per cent. and to increase taxes by 100 per cent. The paper money of the country now standing amounts to 4,500,000,000 dinars.

King Alexander has declined to accept an increase in his civil list, which would bring it from 1,500,000 dinars to 3,000,000, on the ground of the country's need of economy.
